

Section 2 (Time Allowed - 10mins)

Q26-Q35 The following sentences have some spelling mistakes. Select the part of the sentence that has a spelling error. Mark N if there is no spelling error.

Q26. The team faced an unforseen problem during the final stage of the project.

A B C D N

Q27. The speaker addressed the audience publicly, expressing her views on the environment.

A B C D N

Q28. The incident occured unexpectedly in the middle of the event.

A B C D N

Q29. His strong religous beliefs guided many of his life decisions.

A B C D N

Q30. She didn't want to embarass her friend by bringing up the mistake in public.

A B C D N

Q31. There were exactly fourty students present at the workshop.

A B C D N

Q32. The result of the match was a major dissapointment for the home team supporters.

A B C D N

Q33. Her curiousity often got her into trouble, but she loved learning new things.

A B C D N

Q34. He felt deeply greatful for the help he had received during the crisis.

A B C D N

Q35. There was a sense of relief when the missing child was found safe and sound.

A B C D N

Q36-Q45

Read the passage below. Some sentences contain punctuation errors. For each sentence, select the part that contains a punctuation mistake. Mark N if there's NO error:

The Stormy Night

Q36. The rain lashed against the windows as the wind howled loudly through the trees.

A B C D N ✓

Q37. "We're not going out in this weather," said Dad closing the curtains firmly.

A B C ✓ D N

Q38. The power flickered, and then everything went dark the children gasped in fear.

A B C ✓ D N

Q39. "Stay calm," Mum said reassuringly. "I'll find some candles and a torch.

A B C D ✓ N

Q40. The dog, who hated storms, was already hiding under the kitchen table,

A B C D N ✓

Q41. with it's tail tucked tightly between its legs, shaking uncontrollably.

A ✓ B C D N

Q42. Suddenly, there was a loud crash! Outside, the garden fence had blown over.

A B C D N ✓

Q43. "Is everyone alright?" shouted Dad, reaching for his coat and heading to the back door.

A B C D N ✓

Q44. Mum and the children followed him their footsteps echoing on the wet paving stones

A B ✓ C D N

Q45. as they stepped out into the cold Night air.

A B C D ✓ N

Go to next page

Q46 - Q55 The passage below has questions inserted in each of the sentences, select appropriate words to make the sentences correct:

The School Trip Disaster

Q46. We [was] [have] [is] [be] [were] all very excited about our school trip to the countryside.

A B C D ☒ E

Q47. The teacher [say] [says] [saying] [said] [has said] we needed to arrive early at school.

A B C ☒ D E

Q48. I [forget] [forgot] [forgetting] [forgets] [forgotten] my packed lunch at home.

A ☒ B C D E

Q49. By the time I noticed, it [was] [were] [is] [are] [being] too late to go back and get it.

☒ A B C D E

Q50. The bus [left] [leaves] [leaving] [leave] [leaved] without waiting, and I had to run after it.

☒ A B C D E

Q51. I nearly [fall] [fail] [fallen] [falling] [fell] over my own feet while trying to catch up.

A B C D ☒ E

Q52. The teacher asked us to [seat] [sit] [sat] [setting] [set] up our tents quickly because it looked like it might rain.

A B C D ☒ E

Q53. Unfortunately, nobody [brought] [bring] [brang] [bringing] [brings] any waterproof sheets to cover the tents.

☒ A B C D E

Q54. As we were putting the tents up, the wind blew them [of] [out] [up] [off] [from] the ground and sent them flying.

A B C ☒ D E

Q55. Everyone [laugh] [laughter] [laughing] [laughs] [laughed] at first, but soon we were cold, wet, and miserable.

A B C D ☒ E

END OF SECTION